FOOD 4 KIDS - First Presbyterian is hosting the Food 4 Kids program again this summer from June 25-August 15. I am looking for a few new people to be weekly co-coordinators with some of our veteran coordinators. Each weekly coordinator takes one week and is in charge of the groups assigned to make and deliver lunches during that week. We average about 110 lunches per day. It's a very rewarding program and a fun way to work with people from our neighboring churches. If you think you might be interested or would like more information, please see Shelley Swoyer or contact her at sswoyer2002@yahoo.com or call 573-645-6175.

Our Father, Who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors, and lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

But on the first day of the week, at early dawn, they came to the tomb, taking the spices that they had prepared. They found the stone rolled away from the tomb, but when they went in, they did not find the body.

While they were perplexed about this, suddenly two men in dazzling clothes stood beside them. The women were terrified and bowed their faces to the ground, but the men said to them, 'Why do you look for the living among the dead? He is not here, but has risen. Remember how he told you, while he was still in Galilee, that the Son of Man must be handed over to sinners, and be crucified, and on the third day rise again.' Then they remembered his words, and returning from the tomb, they told all this to the eleven and to all the rest. Now it was Mary Magdalene, Joanna, Mary the mother of James, and the other women with them who told this to the apostles. But these words seemed to them an idle tale, and they did not believe them. But Peter got up and ran to the tomb; stooping and looking in, he saw the linen cloths by themselves; then he went home, amazed at what had happened.
